ADMINISTRATIVE

By airtel dated 9/17/71, the Bureau denied authority to interview [REDACTED] in the presence of his attorney. [REDACTED]

All efforts have been expended to identify the individuals that [REDACTED] purportedly overheard in the Los Angeles Coliseum on 10/4/70, with no success. In addition, [REDACTED] is uncertain if he could identify them. No further effort will be expended in this phase, however, Los Angeles will remain alert for any information, in this phase, in the continuing investigation of DANIEL ELLSBERG and MC LEK.

DETAILS:

Date 8/19/711

[REDACTED] was informed of the identity of the interviewing Agent and that Agent desired to talk with him concerning a matter in the area of seats 118 and 119, Row 79, Section 10, Los Angeles Coliseum, during the Rams - Chargers game on October 4, 1970.

[REDACTED] recalled that he occupied seat 119, of the season ticket seats of the [REDACTED] for the Rams - Chargers game, on October 4, 1970, and that his friend, [REDACTED] who then worked as a [REDACTED] occupied seat 118. He said he remained in his seat during the half-time activities.

[REDACTED] advised he does not recall the other persons who occupied adjoining seats and is not aware of their identity. He was asked if he recalled any conversation overheard by him during the course of this game, and particularly at half-time, concerning the Vietnam war and/or the White House Staff. [REDACTED] stated he recalls no such conversation. He commented he is certain he would remember such a controversial topic.

[redacted] was contacted at [redacted] [redacted] Special Agents who identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI and informed [redacted] concerning the nature of the inquiry.

[redacted] advised that she could only vaguely recall [redacted] the Ram-Charger Football Game in October of 1970 had been their only date. She stated that she was not acquainted with any of the persons seated in the adjoining area, and was unable to recall her seat number, neither could she recall any conversation concerning the Vietnam war, secret documents, or mention of the White House Staff. [redacted] concluded that if such a conversation had taken place, she would have recalled the matter.

MC LEK (Daniel Ellsberg): The Los Angeles Chapter of the Peoples Action Council's "Coming Events Calendar" contains an announcement that Daniel Ellsberg will speak in Los Angeles on 11/12/71 at a mass meeting to inaugurate the "Set the Date Campaign." The Peoples Action Council is an umbrella type group coordinating anti-Vietnam activities in the Los Angeles, California, area.

Previous investigation has revealed that Ellsberg admitted in 1969 that he was going to make copies of confidential documents available to the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations.

relationship with Daniel Ellsberg. [redacted] was further advised that the purpose of the proposed interview was not to develop information pertaining to the affairs of the [redacted] or any relationship [redacted] may have had with Ellsberg in regard to [redacted] business. [redacted] asked interviewing Agents if the interview would be limited to any information he could furnish concerning Ellsberg or if he personally was the subject of investigation. The Agents informed [redacted] that the purpose of the interview was to discuss his relationship with Ellsberg and that [redacted] was not the subject of an investigation by the FBI. [redacted] asked if the interview would seek information from him relative to Ellsberg's leak of the "Pentagon papers." The Agents answered in the affirmative.

[redacted] interjected that it was the position of the [redacted] and that he concurred, that inasmuch as Ellsberg furnished the "Pentagon papers" to the [redacted] any knowledge that [redacted] possessed regarding the leak relates to [redacted] business. The interviewing Agents stated that they did not wish to discuss [redacted] business and the interview was terminated. It will be noted that [redacted] tape recorded the interviewing Agents' explanation of the purpose of the proposed interview.

Outwardly, the interview of [redacted] appears to be totally unproductive, however, it should be noted that the unsolicited comment by [redacted] is believed to be the first admission by members of the body that they actually received the "Pentagon papers" from Ellsberg. Results of attempted interview have been furnished in summary form to the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, this date.

LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION
TO THE PRESS

To summarize, for information, recent developments in our continuing investigations of alleged leaks of classified data to the press.

MC LEK (Daniel Ellsberg): Michael Balaban, attorney for Anthony Joseph Russo, Jr., friend and associate of Daniel Ellsberg, has filed motions to be heard on 10/1/71 before a U.S. District Judge in Los Angeles. One of these motions, if upheld, would in effect provide that if Russo were to appear before the Federal Grand Jury, the Government would be ordered to record and provide him with a transcript of his testimony. A second motion seeks an order from the judge instructing the Government to take no action against Russo for any testimony he might possibly provide. Russo is presently incarcerated at the Terminal Island Federal Prison in the Los Angeles area, after being jailed for contempt of court which stemmed from his refusal to testify before a Federal Grand Jury and after he had been granted immunity.

It is noted inquiry at Copy Quik was made to determine if copies of the "Pentagon papers," made available to newspapers subsequent to their initial release by "The New York Times," on 6/13/71, were reproduced at that copying firm. We previously learned from a [REDACTED] in Cambridge, Massachusetts, in late June, 1971, that she had observed five young, male "hippie" types then apparently being paid by Patricia Ellsberg. This incident occurred at a time when a number of U.S. newspapers would have been in the process of obtaining material from the "Pentagon papers," and these "hippies" may have been involved in the disseminating of this material to the newspapers. We are instructing Boston to obtain photographs of [REDACTED] to exhibit to [REDACTED] and determine whether [REDACTED] was one of the five individuals seen at Ellsberg's apartment in late June, 1971.

specific information as to how the CSM obtained copies of Re Bureau airtel to Boston dated 9/30/71, no copies for Los Angeles, WFO or Chicago.

The Boston Office is of the opinion that the following organizations or individuals would be the most logical to be utilized by Dr. DANIEL ELLSBERG for assistance in distributing the "Newspaper Papers" to the press. This opinion has to be conjectured since the intensive investigation of this case to date has failed to establish any concrete connections between ELLSBERG and these organizations and/or individuals except as noted hereinafter:

1. Resist
2. Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ)
3. Business Executives Move for Vietnam Peace (BEM)
4. The Vietnam Study Group (VSG)
5. The Cambridge Institute (CI)
6. [REDACTED]

The most logical of these organizations would be Resist, since it is self described as a nationwide organization of adults, themselves beyond the reach of the draft who have declared their support of those who refuse to be taken into the Army to fight in Vietnam. [REDACTED] is a member of the steering committee of Resist as noted in a pamphlet issued by Resist during November, 1970.

In regard to Resist, however, it should be noted that [REDACTED] a Resist figure, had suggested at a meeting of Resist, date unknown, that Resist "arrange a round table discussion with (Dr.) ELLSBERG and various movement people" to be recorded and video taped for national distribution. It was reported that "many people" were skeptical of the idea of linking ELLSBERG with Resist because of distrust of his "political position". One person suggested that ELLSBERG would be wise to avoid aligning himself with left groups because such an association would diminish his ability to speak to a new constituency.

Also, it should be noted that Resist was the subject of intensive investigation by the Boston Office since May, 1971 in connection with Medburg case and no information was developed during that period indicating any connections between Resist and ELLSBERG or the Pentagon Papers.

Based on the foregoing, it does not appear that it was likely that ELLSBERG had the assistance of Resist in distributing the "Pentagon Papers" to the newspapers.

The PCPJ has been considered as a potential source of aid to ELLSBERG since its overall purpose is massive non-violent civil disobedience used to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war according to its own press release. For this reason, consideration has been given to [REDACTED] determine if the PCPJ assisted in the distribution of the Pentagon Papers.

The PCPJ is a loose conglomerate with little organizational cohesiveness, therefore the principal leaders are difficult to bracket [REDACTED]

A review of information pertaining to the BEM reflects that there has been no activities reported in connection with that organization in the Boston area within the past several years, however, investigation has disclosed ELLSBERG has been known to be in telephonic contact with various BEM chapters in other cities. He has had no known contact with BEM in the Boston area.

Since Chicago was last known to be the Office of Origin for the BEM, a lead is being set forth [REDACTED] to determine if that organization had any possible connection with the distribution of the Pentagon Papers.

With regard to the Vietnam Study Group (VSG), it is to be noted that VSG is a group of Harvard and MIT faculty members who have met as a monthly luncheon group at the Harvard faculty club. The participants in this group were said to be academicians whose discussions were conducted in the spirit of the study of Vietnam as a subject within the province of their professional expertise. ELLSBERG's attendance at luncheons of the so called VSG has been mentioned by the following professional associates during interview by Bureau Agents regarding ELLSBERG:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] when interviewed on 7/12/71 was not pressed as to the identities of the other luncheon participants in meetings of the VSG. It is to be noted that [REDACTED] has been previously subpoenaed before the FGJ at Boston and was uncooperative after a motion to quash his subpoena was denied. A new subpoena has been issued on 10/4/71 calling for his re-appearance before a new FGJ on 10/13/71.

[REDACTED] when interviewed on 9/17/71, described the VSG as a sub-division within the John F. Kennedy Institute of Politics at Harvard University. He named the following members of the group as close associates of ELLSBERG:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] estimated that as many as 20 Harvard and MIT faculty members meet more or less regularly at these luncheons.

[REDACTED]

The CI was selected as a potential target because of its affiliation with the Institute for Policies Studies (IPS), Washington, D.C. in which previous investigation has reflected that various members of the IPS allegedly had access to the "Pentagon Papers". Also the members of the IPS, through recent publication, have indicated that their attitude toward the U.S. Government's participation in the Vietnam war is very much similar to those ideas expressed by ELLSBERG. A further connection is the fact that [REDACTED] of the CI, resides at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in what was formerly a one family residence but has been converted into four apartments. [REDACTED] contacted for interview, advised the contacting Bureau Agents that he would refuse to furnish any information unless he was subpoenaed and after being subpoenaed, refused to testify before the Grand Jury, giving no more information than his name.

The members of the CI are considered to be intellectuals and members of the academic community and give the impression that they have been making a scholarly study of the U. S. Government's activities in various fields, particularly with regard to the Vietnam war.

[REDACTED]

With regard to [REDACTED] it should be noted that photographs of the May Day demonstration surrounding the John F. Kennedy Federal Center on 5/6/71 reflected that [REDACTED] and ELLSBERG were standing together in the crowd picketing the John F. Kennedy Federal Center. Also [REDACTED] was observed in attendance at the first press conference held by ELLSBERG on 7/1/71 to allegedly explain his part in distribution of the Pentagon Papers. That meeting was closed to all but bonafide press representatives; however [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] As the Bureau is aware, that press conference was arranged by [REDACTED] of New York City. [REDACTED]

After review of the above [REDACTED] the Boston Office notes that there is difficulty in further analysing ELLSBERG's activities in the Boston area and any association with "New Left" individuals or organizations since he actually only moved to the Boston area in about September, 1970 and it is known that he spends the majority of his time in a travel status away from the Boston Office, visiting such cities as Washington, D.C. and Los Angeles and New York City on a fairly regular basis.

Daniel Ellsberg:

1 - Mr. C.D. Brennan
1 - Mr. Wagoner

In approximately October, 1969, Anthony Joseph Russo, Jr., friend and associate of Daniel Ellsberg, reportedly was present with Ellsberg and others during the reproduction of classified documents in Los Angeles, California. The documents involved reportedly were obtained from the Rand Corporation. On August 16, 1971, Russo was committed to jail in Los Angeles following his refusal to testify before a Federal Grand Jury and after he had been granted immunity.

On October 1, 1971, Russo appeared before Judge Warren Ferguson, United States District Court, Los Angeles, California, at which time he was asked by Judge Ferguson if he was prepared to testify before a Federal Grand Jury. Russo replied he would answer all "relevant" questions. Judge Ferguson ruled that Russo could purge himself of the contempt citation provided he answered "any and all questions" put forth by the Government. He set Russo's Grand Jury appearance for October 18, 1971, and ordered Russo's immediate release from custody. Judge Ferguson ordered the United States Attorney to provide a reporter for the Grand Jury session at which Russo testifies and that a transcript be made available to Russo within 36 hours. Judge Ferguson enjoined Russo from making any copies of the transcript or commercializing in any manner on the transcript.

Daniel Ellsberg, among others, was present at the time Russo appeared before Judge Ferguson. Subsequent to Russo's appearance Ellsberg, Russo and an individual identified as Anthony Lucas departed Los Angeles by plane en route to Chicago, Illinois. Ellsberg paid for Russo's plane ticket and Lucas paid for his ticket with an American Airlines credit card bearing his name and the address of "The New York Times," 229 West 44th Street, New York City.

INVESTIGATIONS OF UNAUTHORIZED
DISCLOSURES OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

With regard to the above-mentioned duplication in about October, 1969, documents which Ellsberg is suspected of reproducing are currently being examined by the FBI Laboratory for latent fingerprints. Five volumes of material to which Ellsberg had access have been processed. One latent fingerprint of Ellsberg has been identified and 62 latent fingerprints of Anthony Russo have also been identified. It should be noted that Russo did not have legal access to any of the material on which his fingerprints have been identified.

Prior investigation developed information that David Obst obtained a footlocker on August 2, 1971, held in storage for Daniel Ellsberg at the Bekins Van and Storage Company, Santa Monica, California. The footlocker reportedly contained film magazines of the type used in a camera. At the time Obst obtained the footlocker he indicated to an employee of the Bekins Van and Storage Company that the material was needed for a book being published and that the material was to be sent to "New York" immediately.

Obst, together with Seymour M. Hersh in 1969, formed the "Dispatch Home Service" in Washington, D. C. Hersh was the investigative reporter who wrote stories of the My Lai Massacre and Obst sold the stories to various news outlets.

INVESTIGATIONS OF UNAUTHORIZED

On June 13, 1971, "The New York Times" published the first of a series of articles reportedly based on the "Pentagon Papers." Subsequently, a number of other newspapers in the United States began publishing articles also purportedly based on the "Pentagon Papers."

A number of firms in the Boston, Massachusetts, area, which specialize in the reproduction of documents, have been contacted to determine whether they had any connection with the reproduction of the "Pentagon Papers" reportedly furnished to newspapers other than "The New York Times." It was determined that on June 18, 1971,  Dorchester, Massachusetts, issued a check in the amount of $36.38, payable to Copy Quik, a duplicating firm located in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Investigation is being conducted to determine the reason for this payment to Copy Quik.

Information was previously received that copies of the "Pentagon Papers" would be distributed to servicemen at Fort Devens, Massachusetts, on September 30, 1971, under the auspices of Common Sense Books described as a "collective" for various activities such as servicemen counseling, educational workshops, and political action.

The Los Angeles Chapter of the Peace Action Council's "Coming Events Calendar" contains an announcement that Daniel Ellsberg will speak in Los Angeles on November 12, 1971, at a mass meeting to inaugurate the "Set the Date Campaign." The Peace Action Council is an umbrella-type group coordinating anti-Vietnam activities in the Los Angeles, California, area.

LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION
TO THE PRESS

To summarize, for information, recent developments in our continuing investigations of alleged leaks of classified data to the press.

MC LEX (Daniel Ellsberg): Earlier investigation has revealed newspapers other than "The New York Times" had, in late June, 1971, sent representatives to Cambridge, Massachusetts, allegedly for the purpose of attempting to obtain copies of the classified information involved in this matter. A representative of "The St. Louis Post Dispatch" (SLPD) was known to have travelled to Boston during the period noted reportedly with instructions to contact a telephone number in Cambridge from which he would obtain instructions as to how to secure copies of the documents for his paper.

On 10/4/71 [REDACTED]
The Council For A Livable World, advised that [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] by an unrecalled representative of SLPD [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] had a long standing acquaintance with many of the Washington bureau personnel of the SLPD and the organization [REDACTED] is well known as being active in lobbying for arms control, necessitating [REDACTED] in Washington where he has frequent contact with [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] opinion that the SLPD reporter [REDACTED] [REDACTED] did so in desperation to obtain the "Pentagon papers" and from the nature of the reporter's inquiry [REDACTED] gained the definite impression that the reporter had no definite knowledge of the identity of a source from which he could obtain the papers in the Boston area. It was [REDACTED] opinion, based on his knowledge of the newspaper world, that the Washington based newspapers had obtained information as to the availability of the study through Washington sources and as a result had extended their search for these documents to the Cambridge area.

Memorandum to E. S. Miller
RE: LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION
TO THE PRESS
62-08194

It will be recalled that Mrs. Louis Marx had been subpoenaed earlier for testimony before the Federal Grand Jury in Boston and that she had been the object of a grant of immunity which she had, through her attorney, attempted to quash to prevent the need for answering questions before the Grand Jury. A Federal judge of Boston yesterday upheld the granting of immunity to Mrs. Marx and it is expected she will appear before the Grand Jury in the near future.

William Kovach, New England representative for "The New York Times," has previously been revealed in this investigation as arranging for reproduction of the "McNamara Study" by Neil and Susan Sheehan, the latter two Washington-based New York Times reporters. When approached yesterday for interview, Kovach declined to be questioned or to furnish any information and refused to provide a reason for objection of the interview with the Bureau. The Boston Office in its continuing liaison contacts with Government trial attorneys in this matter will suggest that consideration be given to issuance of a subpoena for Kovach's appearance before the Grand Jury.

[REDACTED] was reinterviewed pursuant to request by the Department of Justice. He added little of substance to information previously furnished by him other than to clarify the basis for Ellsberg being given access to the finished "McNamara Study" in the Spring of 1969.

[REDACTED] Paul Warnke, former Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] by mutual agreement had agreed in the Spring of 1969 to restrict access to the "McNamara Study" to their select group in view of the sensitive nature of the material. During the same period Ellsberg was putting pressure on [REDACTED] to obtain access to the study, [REDACTED] noting that Ellsberg was then employed by Rand and was working on a Rand project regarding lessons learned concerning Vietnam. [REDACTED] claimed he had doubts regarding Ellsberg's discretion but noted he had no basis for these doubts. Later in the Spring of 1969 [REDACTED] again raised the subject of Ellsberg's access to the documents, apparently at the behest of [REDACTED] pointed out that Ellsberg had worked on the task force study; there was no proof of Ellsberg being an indiscreet person; and continued refusal to grant him access would cause bad relations with Rand. Shortly after this [REDACTED] was telephoned by either [REDACTED] and access to the documents was granted to Ellsberg.

TO THE PRESS

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] at Rand Corporation refused to be interviewed without her attorney if interview was to be conducted away from Rand Corporation. She acceded to interview at Rand but furnished no information which would shed light on conflicting data she has previously furnished regarding Ellsberg's access to classified information while at Rand.

LEAKS OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION
TO THE PRESS

To summarize, for information, recent developments in our continuing investigations of alleged leaks of classified data to the press.

MC LEK (Daniel Ellsberg): Attempts to locate Anthony J. Russo to serve subpoena for his appearance before Federal Grand Jury on 10/18/71 have been negative to date. Russo has not been at his residence and is on leave from his employment at Los Angeles County Probation Office. As an addendum to the subpoena for Russo is a notice which has been filed with the U.S. District Court, Los Angeles, signed by Robert C. Mardian, Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division and David R. Nissen, Assistant United States Attorney, to the effect that the United States of America hereby notifies Anthony J. Russo that the Government will decline to furnish him a copy of the transcript of proceedings of his appearance before the Federal Grand Jury on 10/18/71 on the grounds that the order requiring such transcript to be furnished him is unlawful and is made without the authority of the court. In this regard, Nissen has conferred with District Judge, Warren Ferguson, who issued the order that Russo be provided with a transcript of his testimony, and Judge Ferguson has indicated to Nissen they would be having a "donnybrook" on the matter.

Nissen has furnished the subpoena for the appearance of Robert Ellsberg, son of Daniel Ellsberg, before the Federal Grand Jury, Los Angeles, on 10/12/71. At the Grand Jury session he will seek to secure Robert's fingerprints. The subpoena for appearance of Lynda Sinay before the Federal Grand Jury, Los Angeles, on 10/13/71, has been served and Nissen advises he also hopes to secure Sinay's fingerprints at that time. Sinay is alleged to have aided Ellsberg and Russo in reproducing portions of the "McNamara Study."

Mr. Nixon and the Prisoner Smokescreen

By RICHARD FALK

RINCETON, N. J.—The basic contention that emerges from extended new sessions with the delegations to Paris peace talks of North Vietnam the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam is their firming belief that the prisoner is a smokescreen behind which North Vietnam intends to go on with war.

Nothing that Mr. Nixon has done or since he became President gives Vietnamese reason for hope that Washington peculiarly desires a rapid settled settlement of the war. On the part, Ambassador Xuan Thuy affirmed the central importance of getting a reasonable date for total withdrawal as the only precondition for prisoner release. This means, Thuy emphasized, that discussions begin at once thereafter on how, whether, to release the prisoners by safe and physical means of use.

North Vietnamese officials emphasized over and over again that have neither reason nor desire to Americans captive once there is evidence that the United States is to end its combat role in Vietnam and to commit itself to total withdrawal. Xuan Thuy pointed out North Vietnam and the provisional government have already indicated official responsiveness on the prisoner issue by making it very plain arrangements for release could be effectuated during the withdrawal process rather than, as is normal, after the end of hostilities. The North Vietnamese are certainly correct when they point out that by virtue of international law and diplomatic practice prisoner release is normally a postwar phenomenon. All the North Vietnamese and the provisional government are asking for is a reasonable date certain, and even those Americans whose only negotiating interest is to get the prisoners back could not expect the Vietnamese to settle for less. Mr. Thuy sought to put the prisoner issue back in the context of the war as a whole. Although he expressed sympathy for the plight of American prisoner families, he emphasized the long suffering endured by the Vietnamese people throughout the course of this cruel war that has been going on in his country since World War II, a war in which Vietnamese deaths each week in recent years have by far exceeded the total number of Americans held captive by Hanoi. Mrs. Binh, chief of the provisional government, asked that Americans eager to resolve the prisoner issue understand Vietnamese feel-as well as their own—"Don't let American people know that the blood of the Vietnamese people is also shed? And don't they know that the Vietnamese people also have families?"

The Vietnamese negotiators believe that the Nixon Administration is using the prisoner issue as a pretext to justify the pursuit of the same old American objective of sustaining by military means a client regime in Saigon. The North Vietnamese believe that no matter what they did about the prisoner issue the U.S. Government would not be willing to end its combat role within the next few months. Although the North Vietnamese are prepared to make every effort to expose the hypocrisy of President Nixon's posture on negotiations, they are pessimistic about any real change.

From the Vietnamese perspective it is essential that something firm and reliable be obtained in exchange for agreeing to early prisoner release. Nothing Mr. Nixon has said or done about his withdrawal intentions gives North Vietnam any incentive to move. There has been no final withdrawal date set, there has been no exclusion of "a residual force," there has been no indication of a willingness to end the use of air and naval power, there have been no indications of a time limit or even an upper ceiling on post-withdrawal military aid to the Saigon regime, and there have been no assurances about the U.S. combat role in the rest of Indochina.

In essence, then, we derived the following firm conclusions from these detailed discussions: the North Vietnamese have been neither fooled nor intimidated by Mr. Nixon's exaggerated emphasis on the prisoner issue as the obstacle to ending the Vietnam war; at the same time, the North Vietnamese are fully prepared to make satisfactory arrangements for prisoner release; the United States can obtain such a result only by setting a reasonable date for total withdrawal; failure to set a date for total withdrawal will both extend the war and postpone prisoner release indefinitely.

Richard Falk, Milbank Professor of International Law at Princeton, has just returned from Paris where he met with Vietnam peace negotiators.

RE Bureau airtel dated 9/29/71.

Re Bureau airtel reflects:

"On 6/13/71, "The New York Times" published the first of a series of articles based on portions of the "McNamara Study," popularly known as the "Pentagon Papers." Similar articles subsequently appeared in the "Washington Post," the "Boston Globe," the "Christian Science Monitor," the "Los Angeles Times," the "Chicago Sun Times," the "Philadelphia Inquirer," the "St. Louis Post Dispatch," and the "Miami Herald." Considering dates of publication of these articles, these newspapers had to have been engaged in acquiring their material at some time during approximate period 6/13 - 7/10/71."

"Investigation has developed no information as to identity of person or persons responsible for placing this material in hands of newspapers mentioned above. Actual mechanics of this operation are likewise obscure, although DANIEL ELLSBERG, prime suspect in this matter, has claimed he was original source for all the newspapers, and that other individuals assisted him in distributing this data to the press."

THE OCTOBER EIGHT LAST ISSUE OF THE LOS ANGELES FREE PRESS, AN UNDERGROUND NEWSPAPER, CONTAINS A LENGTHY ARTICLE BY DANIEL ELLSBERG ON VIETNAM. IN A PREFACE TO THIS ARTICLE, ELLSBERG STATES THAT THE ARTICLE IS A TRANSCRIPT OF AN INFORMAL BRIEFING DELIVERED TO THE RAND BOARD OF TRUSTEES, NOVEMBER ELEVEN NINETEEN SIXTY SEVEN, UPON HIS RETURN FROM VIETNAM. IN PART, ELLSBERG STATES THAT THE ARTICLE DOES NOT REFLECT ANY RAND RESEARCH; HOWEVER, THE TALK WAS CLASSIFIED AT THE TIME IT WAS GIVEN BECAUSE OF THE ORDER OF BATTLE ESTIMATES PRESENTED. ELLSBERG FURTHER STATES THAT THESE ESTIMATES HAVE SUBSEQUENTLY BEEN OFFICIALLY RELEASED TO THE PUBLIC IN SAIGON AND WASHINGTON.

MC LEK SIO- SUMMARY.

DOCTOR MORTON H. HALPERIN, BROOKINGS INSTITUTION, WDC, REINTERVIEWED PURSUANT TO DEPARTMENT REQUEST. INTERVIEW WILL BE CONTINUED, HOWEVER, A BRIEF SUMMARY OF INFORMATION FURNISHED FOLLOWS. COMPLETE DETAILS WILL BE FURNISHED IN FD THREE ZERO TWO'S.

HALPERIN STATED THAT THE REASON WHY DANIEL ELLSBERG WAS GIVEN ACCESS TO VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY MATERIAL, THE THIRTY EIGHT VOLUME SET AND LATER THE FORTY SEVEN VOLUME SET, WHICH HALPERIN, PAU, WARNKE AND LESLIE GELB HAD HAD STORED AT THE RAND CORPORATION WAS THAT HARRY ROWEN, PRESIDENT OF RAND, HAD SPECIFICALLY REQUESTED ON TWO OCCASIONS THAT ELLSBERG BE GIVEN ACCESS. ROWEN'S REQUESTS WERE MADE TO HALPERIN. THE LATTER CONSULTED GELB AND WARNKE AFTER THE FIRST REQUEST AND

ALL THREE DECIDED AGAINST THE AUTHORIZATION BECAUSE THEY HAD A FEELING THAT ELLSBERG MIGHT BE INDISCREET AND REVEAL EITHER THE EXISTENCE OF THE VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY ITSELF OR THAT

HE MIGHT RELATE TO FRIENDS PARTICULAR INCIDENTS DERIVED FROM HIS READINGS OF THE STUDY. NONE OF THE THREE THOUGHT THAT ELLSBERG WOULD BE THE TYPE OF PERSON WHO WOULD GIVE ANY PORTIONS OF THE STUDY TO NEWSPAPERS. AFTER THE SECOND TELEPHONE REQUEST FROM ROWEN, HALPERIN WENT BACK TO GELB AND NOTED THAT ELLSBERG HAD DOD TOP SECRET CLEARANCE, THAT HE WAS WORKING FOR RAND ON A DOD CONTRACTUAL PROJECT RELATING TO VIETNAM AND THAT ROWEN WANTED HIM TO HAVE ACCESS TO THE DOCUMENTS. HALPERIN TOLD GELB THAT THEY WERE IN NO POSITION TO QUOTE SECOND GUESS END QUOTE THE DOD AND QUESTION ELLSBERG'S RIGHT TO HAVE ACCESS TO THE MATERIAL. HALPERIN NOTED THAT HE, NOR GELB NOR WARNKE HAD ANY SOLID BASIS FOR BELIEVING ELLSBERG WOULD BE INDISCREET. GELB AND HALPERIN THEN AGREED TO GIVE ELLSBERG ACCESS AND HALPERIN SO NOTIFIED ROWEN TELEPHONICALLY.

CONCERNING THE MEMORANDUM TO ROWEN DATED DECEMBER NINETEEN, SIXTYEIGHT, AND SIGNED BY HALPERIN, GELB AND WARNKE CONCERNING AND LISTING PAPERS WHICH THE THREE WERE HAVING STORED AT RAND, HALPERIN STATED THAT THIS WAS A JOINT DECISION ARRIVED AT BY THE THREE OF THEM. HALPERIN UNDERSTOOD FROM GELB

THAT FORMER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE ROBERT V. MC NAMARA HAD BEEN CONSULTED CONCERNING STORING OF THESE PAPERS AT RAND.

HALPERIN STATED THAT ON SEPTEMBER TWENTYSIX, SEVENTY, HE HAD A PARTY AT HIS RESIDENCE WITH APPROXIMATELY THIRTY GUESTS THE PRIMARY PURPOSE WAS TO INTRODUCE ELLSBERG'S NEW BRIDE TO SOME OF THE FRIENDS IN WASHINGTON. ELLSBERG ASKED HALPERIN TO INVITE NEIL SHEEHAN AND WIFE TO THIS PARTY. HALPERIN SAID HE DID NOT RECALL OTHER GUESTS AT THE PARTY. HALPERIN SAID THAT HE HAD KNOWN ELLSBERG SINCE APPROXIMATELY NINETEEN SIXTY AND HAS SEEN HIM OFF AND ON SINCE THAT TIME. HE ALSO ADVISED HE HAD LUNCH WITH ELLSBERG ON SEPTEMBER TWENTYSEVEN, SEVENTYONE, AND THAT THEIR RECENT RELATIONS HAD BEEN SOMEWHAT STRAINED.

HALPERIN ADVISED THAT AS OF OCTOBER FIVE, SEVENTYONE, HIS TOP SECRET CLEARANCE HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN. HALPERIN UNDERSTANDS THAT DOD HAD INSTRUCTED RAND TO LIFT THE CLEARANCES OF ANY RAND CONSULTANTS WHO WERE NOT ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN CONSULTING. HALPERIN STATED THAT QUOTE PRIVATE PAPERS END QUOTE, ALL CLASSIFIED MATERIAL, SOME OF WHICH RELATE TO VIETNAM MATTERS, BUT NONE OF WHICH RELATE TO THE VIETNAM TASK FORCE STUDY

WHICH HE HAD REMOVED FROM RAND AND SENT TO ARCHIVES WOULD NO LONGER BE ACCESSIBLE TO HIM BECAUSE HIS CLEARANCE HAD BEEN LIFTED.

Bureau notes that previous information developed in this case disclosed [redacted] of the "Boston Globe" newspaper was one of the "Boston Globe" [redacted] and worked on the copies of the so-called "Pentagon papers" after these documents had been received by the "Boston Globe." Additionally, [redacted]

Information available to the Bureau thus far suggests that [redacted] may be classified as a material witness rather than a potential defendant in this case and also may be approachable for a successful interview. Accordingly, WFO should check indices and make appropriate recommendations to interview [redacted]

For your information Bureau indices contain nothing which would preclude interview of [redacted]

LEB:mcm (10)

NOTE:

Referenced teletype stated that in view of [redacted] potential status as a defendant in this case, WFO did not contemplate an interview of [redacted] until his status was clarified. By letter dated 8/16/71 the Attorney General stated there was no restriction on this Bureau in conducting an interview with representatives of the press except for Neil and Susan Sheehan, potential defendants in this case. Instructions in this communication being issued to preclude WFO from placing a narrow interpretation on current instructions regarding interview with representatives of the press who may possess pertinent information in this case.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS OFFICE (SIO)

RePHtel 10/7/71 which advised of scheduled appearances by Daniel Ellsberg at St. Joseph's College 10/20/71 and at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on same date.

Department of Justice has evidenced interest in past in public appearances by Ellsberg and has requested, where possible, verbatim transcriptions of his speeches during those occasions be made and furnished to the Department for review as to possible admissions he may make. In line with this, Philadelphia should insure that adequate coverage is given to the aforementioned speeches by Ellsberg. In view of fact that scheduled speeches are to take place on college campuses, it is not contemplated that Special Agent personnel will conduct investigation to obtain details of the speeches if the meetings before which Ellsberg is to appear are not of an open and public nature.

Summary of Ellsberg's comments should be furnished Bureau by summary teletype followed immediately thereafter by appropriate FD-302s incorporated in investigative report.

NOTE:

Ellsberg has been making frequent public appearances in recent past as result of publicity afforded him in his admitted leak of classified information to the news media. He is scheduled for two meetings at college functions on date mentioned and we should obtain details of his comments to comply with Department of Justice request. This investigation should not, however, be conducted in such a manner as to reflect on Bureau adversely and instant instructions are therefore being issued.

A chronological listing of the daily activities, travel and contacts of Daniel Ellsberg was prepared to assist and facilitate the continuing investigation and successful prosecution of Ellsberg. This material has been compiled through file reviews and has been coordinated with the Department of Justice, who expressed an interest in such listing.

The enclosed material in notebook form briefly notes pertinent activities, travel and contacts of Ellsberg in chronological order and in each instance the source of the material is set forth in parenthesis. This notebook, dating from late 1967 to the present, is not considered all inclusive and is continually being revised and up-dated as the investigation progresses. Periodic revisions will be prepared as required by further investigation and these revisions will be furnished to you upon completion.

Peace workers honored in Chi by businessmen

By MORT SCHAFFNER

CHICAGO, Oct. 5—"The voice of George Meany for war is not the voice of labor," declared Abe Fineglass, vice president of the Amalgamated Meatcutters and Butcherworkmen's Union as he presented an award for peace work to Frank Rosenblum, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

Five thousand peace advocates jammed into Orchestra Hall in the Loop here last Friday evening for the first annual National Peace Awards Ceremony sponsored by the Business Executives Move for Peace (BEMP). The awards were presented to a list of people chosen for "their outstanding and courageous leadership in the struggle for peace."

In accepting his award, Rosenblum stated, "The dissent against this totally unjustifiable and immoral war is now rampant across the nation. I'm sure there would be no war if there were no profit in war."

"Get the war over"

"The war must be over, and over quickly. But there are other things that must concern us also."

the aggression in Southeast Asia "politically misguided and historically obscene, and not worth one human life."

Also receiving an award was Rev. Ralph Abernathy, who is currently in the German Democratic Republic after a tour of the Soviet Union. Cirilo McSweeney, accepting the award for Rev. Abernathy, called upon the American people to "put a stop to the election and re-election of those people who just do not respect peace and humanity."

Folk singer Joan Baez received her award, urging people to "learn to defend human life rather than flags."

In a surprise appearance, U.S. Rep. Peter McCloskey, an announced Republican opponent of Nixon

NOTE:

Halperin, Gelb and Warnke as of 12/68 were connected with Department of Defense, however, the transfer of documents in 1/69 would have been after the change in the Administration. Because of this change, there is question as to whether or not these three persons had a right to take the action that they did.

Enclosed for Los Angeles, New York, and WFO is one copy of portions of the September/October, 1971, issue of the "Columbia Journalism Review." This issue contains articles concerning the publication of the "McNamara Study" by various newspapers in the U.S. Recipients should review the material enclosed for leads.

Los Angeles and WFO note that an article by Jules Witcover, of the "Los Angeles Times" on pages 7-15 of the enclosed publication, relates that Ben Haig Bagdikian, assistant managing editor, "The Washington Post," inquired of Henry Rowen of the Rand Corporation concerning the existence of a Rand Corporation study on the advisability of withdrawal from Vietnam and was told by Rand that there had been no such study. This occurred just prior to the publication by "The New York Times" of portions of the "McNamara Study," that is, prior to 6/13/71. The article went on to relate that on 6/17/71, Bagdikian went to the home of an official of "The Washington Post" carrying 4,400 unbound pages of a document (presumably the "McNamara Study.") The article went on to relate that Bagdikian had a prominent role in the preparation of "The Washington Post" articles on the "McNamara Study."

Re: MC LEK

[REDACTED]

Los Angeles has verified [REDACTED] had been at Rand Corporation, Santa Monica, California, from September, 1967, until December, 1969, and during that time [REDACTED] Henry Rowen, president, Rand Corporation, Santa Monica, California, advised on 7/6/71 that on the night prior to the publishing portions of the "McNamara Study" by "The Washington Post" he had talked by telephone with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] informed Rowen that Daniel Ellsberg had tried to contact [REDACTED] several days previous. [REDACTED] offered no further information concerning the matter to Rowen.

In view of the information set out above, Bureau feels that [REDACTED] had a significant part in the acquisition of "McNamara Study" by "The Washington Post" and facts suggest the probability he received the study directly from Ellsberg or through Ellsberg. It would appear that [REDACTED] may be in a position to shed some light on Ellsberg's association with [REDACTED] and possible delivery of portions of the "McNamara Study" [REDACTED] The files of the Bureau do not contain derogatory information concerning [REDACTED]

In view of the above, WFO should determine if [REDACTED] at this time, check indices and if no valid reasons exist to the contrary, should interview [REDACTED]

Airtel to Los Angeles et al.
Re: MC LEK
65-74060

Los Angeles, if not already done, should reinterview Henry Rowen to clarify contacts made by [REDACTED] with Rowen shortly before the publication of portions of the "McNamara Study" by "The Washington Post." In this connection it will be noted that Rowen has stated that he attempted to contact [REDACTED] but he has not related to this Bureau details of contacts [REDACTED] may have made with him as set out in [REDACTED]

NOTE:

The publication being forwarded to recipient offices contains much "propaganda-type" information concerning the background into the acquisition and publication of the "McNamara Study" by various newspapers. One of the articles, however, furnishes details not previously known concerning the acquisition of the study by "The Washington Post." In view of the fact that [REDACTED] is the most likely person at "The Washington Post" who could have obtained the "McNamara Study," from Ellsberg, it is believed that interview with [REDACTED] is a logical step.

ReBSairtel 9/2/71, no copies to Cleveland or Springfield, and BSairtel and IHM 7/16/71, copies to all recipients.

Referenced airtel 9/2/71 outlined investigation designed to identify guests registered at the Treadway Motor Inn, Cambridge, Massachusetts, at various times during March and April, 1971, while Cornelius Sheehan was a guest there. These individuals had occupied rooms adjacent or near to Sheehan's room and instructions were issued that they be interviewed to determine whether they could identify Sheehan or his wife, Susan, as being present at the Treadway Motor Inn and whether they observed anyone carrying packages or papers to or from the hotel during the periods of Sheehan's occupancy.

Reairtel 9/2/71 further noted Susan Sheehan was registered under the name of Susan Dowling at the Continental Hotel, Cambridge, Massachusetts, from 7 p.m., 3/21/71, until 7 p.m., 3/23/71, occupying Room 126. This airtel instructed Philadelphia to interview [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Bufiles indicate efforts by Philadelphia to interview [REDACTED] concerning his possible knowledge of Susan Sheehan's presence and activities at the Continental Hotel on 3/23/71 were negative in that [REDACTED] advised he did not wish to be interviewed by the FBI.

Referenced Boston LHM 7/16/71 identifies other guests besides [REDACTED] who were registered at the Continental Hotel immediately prior to or during the period Susan Sheehan was there. The following individuals occupied rooms adjacent to Sheehan's room (Room 126):

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

According to Bufiles, above individuals have already been identified by offices covering their respective places of residence and no information developed which would preclude their interviews in this matter. Cleveland, Philadelphia and Springfield should, therefore, initiate steps to promptly interview the aforementioned individuals and photographs of Cornelius and Susan Sheehan, as well as of Daniel Ellsberg, should be exhibited to them to determine whether they can identify any of these persons as being present at the Continental Hotel during the period 3/21-23/71. Persons interviewed should also be questioned as to whether they observed any unusual traffic to or from Room 126, whether they saw folders, boxes or large quantities of papers being carried by anyone to or from the hotel during this period and whether they can recall seeing Daniel Ellsberg at this hotel during this period.

Boston immediately forward photographs of Cornelius and Susan Sheehan, and Daniel Ellsberg, to Cleveland and Springfield by airtel. Bufiles indicate Philadelphia already in possession of such photographs.

Referenced Boston LHM 7/16/71 also notes 55 separate parties registered at the Continental Hotel during the period 3/18-25/71 and that of these registrations, 15 were known to the hotel management as being frequent guests of the hotel or persons who had appeared at the hotel in the past. Boston should review hotel records to determine whether any of these 15 registrants occupied rooms adjacent or near to Room 126 during the period Susan Sheehan was there, and if so, set out appropriate leads to identify and interview such individuals relative to their possible knowledge of Sheehan's presence and activities at the hotel.

Handle promptly, sutel results of interviews, and incorporate same in reports suitable for dissemination. Such reports should contain introductory paragraph identifying individual interviewed as a guest at the Continental Hotel during the period 3/21-23/71, together with any other background data previously developed concerning individual interviewed.

NOTE:

Cornelius Sheehan, a Washington, D. C.-based reporter for "The New York Times," and his wife, Susan, reproduced a large number of documents believed to be copies of the "McNamara Study" in Boston, Massachusetts, during period 3/21-23/71. Sheehan and wife occupied different hotels during period and were registered under assumed names. We have previously interviewed guests at hotel occupied by Sheehan in effort to develop data concerning his activities and we are now initiating investigation to conduct similar interviews of guests at hotel where Susan Sheehan was registered, to ascertain whether they can identify either of the Sheehans, or Daniel Ellsberg, as being present at this hotel during this period.

SHOULD RECONTACT ROWEN TO DETERMINE, ONE, WHETHER PAGE TWENTY-THREE OF REFERENCED LHM IS A COPY OF THE ORIGINAL AGREEMENT AND, TWO, WHETHER PAGE TWENTY-FOUR IS A COPY OF THE COPY OF THE AGREEMENT FURNISHED WARNKE. IF PAGE TWENTY-FOUR IS A COPY OF THE COPY OF THE AGREEMENT SENT TO WARNKE, DETERMINE WHY RAND, CALIFORNIA, HAS POSSESSION OF WARNKE'S COPY. IN ADDITION, YOU SHOULD DETERMINE IF ROWEN HAS ANY EXPLANATION AS TO THE REASON WHY THE DATE ON ONE COPY IS TYPEWRITTEN AND THE OTHER COPY IS HAND WRITTEN, AS WELL AS THE REASON FOR THE DATE OF DECEMBER THIRTY, NINETEEN SIXTY-EIGHT BEING CROSSED OUT ON ONE COPY.

NOTE:

Prior investigation has revealed that certain Defense Department documents were transferred to Rand Corporation, Washington, D. C., in January, 1969. Transfer was facilitated by agreement reportedly dated 12/18/68 directed to Rowen, President of Rand, and signed by Halperin, Gelb and Warnke, who at that time were connected with Department of Defense. Subsequent to transfer of documents, Ellsberg was allowed access to at least some of them. Visual examination of copies of agreement indicates date appearing on agreement was typed by a different typewriter than the agreement itself. If it can be proven that agreement was backdated to 12/18/68 and that agreement was actually executed sometime in 1969, there may be a question as to the legality of the agreement. Investigation requested in instant teletype of Los Angeles is directed toward determining the above.

To summarize, for information, results of conference by Bureau representatives with Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian of Internal Security Division and representatives of his staff on 10/6/71.

Memorandum Inspector C. D. Brennan to Assistant Director E. S. Miller, 10/5/71, approved by the Director, sought authority for Bureau representatives to attend a conference requested by the Assistant Attorney General - Internal Security Division (AAG-ISD) sought by him to insure complete adequacy of United States Government's case against Ellsberg in view of imminent filing of bill of particulars by the Department in this matter. ISD participants included AAG Mardian, his Deputy Kevin T. Moroney and Departmental Attorney John Martin. Bureau representatives included Assistant Directors E. S. Miller, D. J. Dalbey, Inspector Brennan and Domestic Intelligence Division Supervisors E. R. Harrell and J. R. Wagoner.

Principal subject of discussion related to information obtained regarding 16 documents included among a group of papers deposited with the National Archives on 6/22/71 by Dr. Leslie Gelb, Paul Warnke and Morton Halperin. It will be recalled these three individuals had prominent posts in the Pentagon task force responsible for preparation of "McNamara Study" and later were connected with Rand Corporation office in Washington, D. C. Just prior to their leaving Department of Defense (DOD), they forwarded to Rand-Washington pertinent documents relating to the task force study for reference purposes in the event of needed revisions or corrections. These documents were the subject of a signed agreement between them and Henry Rowen, President of Rand Corporation. This agreement, reportedly dated 12/18/68, prevented access to and distribution of these papers unless approved by two of the three individuals who signed the agreement, namely Warnke, Halperin and Gelb. According to the agreement, these papers were subdivided into sections known as (a) Warnke Private Papers, (b) McNaughton Papers and (c) OSD Task Force and related papers.

Memorandum to E. S. Miller

After initial publication of the "Pentagon papers" in "The New York Times," 6/13/71, DOD took steps to retrieve classified material in this matter from Rand at Washington, D. C., and at Santa Monica, California. Some of the papers sent by the aforementioned men to Rand were recovered by DOD but others were separately furnished for retention to the National Archives by Warnke, Gelb and Halperin on 6/22/71 and were not to be opened until 1976.

In the analysis made by DOD of articles published by "The New York Times," identification was made of numerous documents to which Ellsberg had access. In addition, 16 documents have been noted by DOD as appearing in "The New York Times" series to which Ellsberg was not known to have had access during his employment at Rand. Department of Justice has learned that these 16 documents are included in the material deposited with the National Archives by Gelb, Warnke and Halperin. It should be noted, however, that the documents in question were maintained in the Rand-Washington office during periods when Ellsberg was there and it is not impossible that he may have had opportunity to acquire copies of these documents in Washington without official recorded notice being taken of his access to these papers.

Department of Justice feels it is essential the 16 documents be obtained either through subpoena or search warrant and examined by the Identification Division - Latent Fingerprint Section on the possibility that identification of prints of Neil Sheehan, Susan Sheehan, Daniel Ellsberg, or other principals in instant matter, may be detected. AAG Mardian requested advice as to whether a large-scale examination of this nature could be handled expeditiously by Bureau, noting after consultation with appropriate DOD official the 16 documents involve approximately 130 pages. AAG Mardian was advised after consultation with Assistant Director Walters the number of pages noted could be processed within eight hours if adequate prior notice was given to the Identification Division.

AAG-ISD pointed out that the Government contemplated taking no steps to acquire the documents mentioned prior to completion of interviews currently being conducted of Gelb, Halperin and Warnke by WFO. WFO has been separately instructed to expedite these interviews, it being noted the interviews of Gelb and Halperin have been conducted and the interview of Warnke is scheduled for the immediate future. WFO will advise us at once when interviews have been completed and the Department will be notified and the Identification Division alerted.

Departmental Attorney John Martin pointed out ISD feeling that examination and analysis of Xerox copies of previously recovered documents in this matter currently being made by Xerox Corporation at Rochester, New York, is considered to be an important facet of the Government's prosecution. He was assured the examination by Xerox company is being followed closely and the results of its analysis and findings will be furnished ISD immediately upon receipt from Buffalo Office. By separate communication, Buffalo has been advised of need to continue to follow the examination closely looking toward early completion and detailed reporting of Xerox company's findings.

She is presently [REDACTED]

She denied any personal knowledge of how, when, where, by whom, or from whom the so-called "Pentagon Papers" were received by CSM. She denied having seen or having handled these papers. She denied any personal knowledge regarding DANIEL ELLSBERG. She denied any personal knowledge concerning the alleged unauthorized disclosures of classified information by ELLSBERG.

She confirmed that CSM initially published the "Pentagon Papers" articles on June 29, 1971, and advised that articles had logically been written June 27, 1971. She added that it was necessary then that the data on which the articles were based had been received by CSM by June 27, 1971.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] She said that the CSM [REDACTED] logically would be the person who could answer the questions posed above.

ReBuairtel 9/23/71; LA summary teletype 10/5/71.

On 10/5/71 JAN L. BUTLER, former Top Secret (TS) Control Officer, Rand Corporation, Santa Monica, California, advised that she would answer any questions concerning Rand business systems and document control of which she has personal knowledge, but would not answer any questions regarding her personal relationship with DANIEL ELLSBERG except in the presence of her attorney, in his office. She stated her attorney is RAY JEPPSON of the firm of Gray and Jeppson, 9025 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles.

BUTLER advised that as of the first week in September 1971 she has been assigned to the Information Science Department (ISD), Rand Corporation, and is no longer the TS Control Officer. In her new position she will be responsible for the ISD-Math Document Control Center, developing literature research capabilities for that department, giving editorial assistance and coordinating reports.

BUTLER has been previously cooperative in this investigation and it is to be noted that the basis for most of the questions posed in referenced airtel was unprompted information originally supplied by BUTLER. She has recently been extensively interviewed by DOD officials and obviously has been transferred from her former position for her lax security procedures. She now appears defensive and somewhat bitter.

To avoid making BUTLER completely hostile, only routine questions regarding Rand document control procedures were asked of her during her 10/5/71 interview. On 10/6/71 BUTLER cooperatively made telephonic contact and voluntarily offered an investigative lead concerning a possible difference in the volume numbering system used by DOD and Rand Corporation. Results of interview of BUTLER on 10/5/71 and 10/6/71 were reported in Los Angeles summary teletypes on above dates and have been appropriately recorded on FD-302's.

Continuing contact will be maintained with BUTLER at the Rand Corporation office. Over a period of time, it is anticipated that the answers to the posed questions can be obtained in a casual manner, bearing in mind that BUTLER may inadvertently answer some of the more personal questions if posed more extemporaneously than in a planned interview.

Los Angeles does not recommend that BUTLER be re-subpoenaed before a Grand Jury at this time as the possibility exists that she will become completely hostile and her value as a key Government witness diminished.

It is noted that referenced Los Angeles airtel reflected that 12 Top Secret (TS) documents had been picked up by the Department of Defense in June 1971 and transported to the Department of Defense, Washington, D.C. For the information of WFO, two of these documents, TS-3151 and TS-3151B, are the "Simons Papers."

WFO should assign the following LA exhibit numbers to the following documents which are in the custody of the Department of Defense, Washington, D.C. It is noted that DANIEL ELLSBERG was not on the approved list for the last two documents; however, Los Angeles feels that they should also be exhibited inasmuch as they relate to the Vietnam situation and it is possible that ELLSBERG may have had access to these documents as these 12 documents are 12 supporting documents which are mostly made up of working notes of DANIEL ELLSBERG and Lieutenant Colonel SIMONS.

Re Bureau airtel 8/20/71 with enclosures; Bureau telephone call to LA 8/23/71 and Bureau airtel 9/7/71.

Enclosed for the Bureau and WFO are two copies each of an LHM dated and captioned as above.

The LHM is in response to questions contained in Departmental letter to the Bureau dated 8/12/71 which were to be asked of JAN L. BUTLER, former TS Control Officer, and HENRY S. ROWEN, President, Rand Corporation, Santa Monica.

The LHM consists of results of interview with JAN BUTLER on 8/23/71 regarding items 6, 7 and 8 in above mentioned Departmental letter and a written response received from HENRY S. ROWEN on 10/7/71 which are in answer to items 1-5, 9 and 11, same letter.

As the Bureau is aware, ROWEN, when contacted on 9/10/71, stated he would be unable to answer the questions posed to him without conducting research into the matter. The questions were then dictated to ROWEN's secretary in his presence, almost word for word as set forth in Departmental letter. It is to be noted that in ROWEN's response, the questions as set out above ROWEN's answers, are in some instances somewhat edited and although not exactly as dictated, do contain the sense of the original question.

A copy of this LHM is being furnished locally to AUSA

Incorporated into this memorandum are the results of an interview with Jan L. Butler, Top Secret Control Officer, Rand Corporation, Santa Monica, California, on August 23, 1971, and the written response of Henry S. Rowen, President, Rand Corporation, Santa Monica, to questions presented to him on September 10, 1971, which was received from Mr. Rowen on October 7, 1971.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

On August 23, 1971, JAN BUTLER, Top Secret Control Officer, Rand Corporation, 1700 Main Street, Santa Monica, Los Angeles, California, had advised that the 47-volume study known as the "McNamara Study" was received at the Rand Corporation in Santa Monica on October 3, 1969. It was her recollection that this was a Friday and the shipment arrived late in the afternoon.

She produced the original pink cover sheet for each volume which are entitled "Top Secret Record Access." On the upper right hand portion of each sheet is a line, "date received." After this notation appears the date October 3, 1969. On the lower portion of these sheets is a section designed as the "charge out" section and appears the name, date and purpose for any individual handling each particular volume.

On volume IV.B.1, the first item is the date October 22, 1969, followed by her name and the purpose for handling is "log and attach access record." She stated that this has been a stock phrase used by her and to be absolutely correct, the purpose should be "attach access record," inasmuch as she had previously logged these documents into a black loose-leaf notebook entitled "Top Secret Log Number 5." She referred to "Top Secret Log Number 5," and from this determined that all the documents were logged in this book between October 9, 1969, and October 20, 1969.

Subsequent to this entry appears the date October 23, 1969, and the name D. ELLSBERG, and the purpose is "read." She saw no discrepancy and from this record would say that she had completed the administrative logging procedure October 22, 1969, and that the document was charged out to D. ELLSBERG October 23, 1969.

She stated that, to her knowledge, D. ELLSBERG did not have possession of any of the volumes of the 47-volume "McNamara Study" outside of the normal security procedure at Rand Corporation. She stated that he may have seen the "Mc Namara Study" prior to any of the volumes being charged out to him October 23, 1969, but under no circumstances would she allow him to take them out of her office without being properly charged out.

JAN BUTLER added that the "Top Secret Record of Access" is not a log but a record of access and accountability for each top secret document.

JAN BUTLER stated in regard to the "Top Secret Record of Access" sheet for Volume IV.C.4, the initials appearing after the name ELLSBERG are hers. She reviewed the "Top Secret Record of Access" for the "Mc Namara Study" and noted several other occasions where someone else signed ELLSBERG's name. In each of these instances, the name is in her handwriting followed by her initials. No one else signed for ELLSBERG in the "Mc Namara Study" except ELLSBERG himself or she. She stated that at the time an individual takes possession of a "Top Secret" document, they execute a receipt which she retains. The individual takes possession of the document to which is attached the "Top Secret Record of Access". The individual is supposed to enter the date of receipt, sign his name, and, in the appropriate place, enter the reason for taking possession of the document.

She stated that she does not see the "Top Secret Record of Access" until it is returned to her attached to the "Top Secret" document. At this time she returns the receipt for the document to the individual who had possession of it. In the event the individual has not entered the date of receipt and signed his name, she, in the past, has entered the date of receipt, signed the individual's name, and placed her initials after the name.

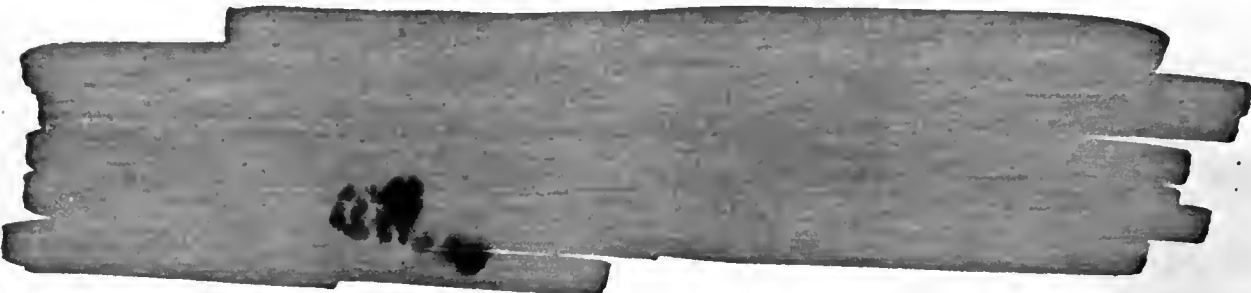

In those instances where she entered the date and signed the individual's name, she obtained the date from the receipt. In those instances where only the month and the year appeared next to the name, she had failed to get the exact date before returning the receipt to the individual, and she was forced just to put the month and the year.

She stated that this was not too unusual at that time, inasmuch as numerous individuals at Rand neglected to date and sign the "Top Secret Record of Access", and she would date and sign this for them as a matter of convenience for them.

She stated that DANIEL ELLSBERG found administrative procedures of the security system bothersome and failed to sign and date many "Top Secret Record of Access" forms. She produced the "Top Secret Sight Inventory Sheet" for the sight inventory of the items in DANIEL ELLSBERG's safe on April 17, 1970. This inventory sheet reflects that all items charged out to DANIEL ELLSBERG as of that date were in his possession at that time. This sheet contained the top secret control numbers of ten additional items that were in his possession and not contained on the top secret inventory sheet printed out by Rand Corporation.

She stated that the top secret control numbers of these documents were entered in her handwriting. She stated that the items entered in her handwriting had been recently charged out to ELLSBERG and failed to be reflected on this sheet. She stated upon return to her office she ascertained that all of these items had been properly charged out to ELLSBERG.

According to the records of Rand Corporation, ELLSBERG only charged out 27 volumes of the "Mc Namara Study". She recalled ELLSBERG physically looking at all 47 volumes, in the "Top Secret Control Office", and indicated there were a number of volumes he was not interested in seeing.

JAN BUTLER produced the "Top Secret Record of Access", volume I.5A, "Justification of the War--Public Statements (U) (a. Truman Administration. b. Eisenhower Administration, c. Kennedy Administration)". In the charge out section appears a date, April 7, 1969, followed by the name D. ELLSBERG. The date is crossed out and the date April 20, 1970, appears above. She stated that the signature is that of DANIEL ELLSBERG; however, the date April 7, 1969, is her writing as well as the date April 20, 1970. She stated she had no explanation for the date April 7, 1969. She theorized that the date appearing above this entry was "69", and this may have caused her to enter '69 instead of '70.

She produced an IBM card which indicated that this volume was charged out on April 20, 1970. JAN BUTLER added that she was not aware in April 1969, or April 1970, that DANIEL ELLSBERG had been designated courier by the Rand Corporation.
